

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The authors would like to express their appreciation to the following for their assistance in preparing this paper:

- Steve Barrow, Project Coordinator/Executive Director, California Premature Infant Health Coalition
- Marian Dalsey, MD, MPH, former Chief, Children’s Medical Services Branch, Department of Health Care Services
- Rocio De Mateo Smith, Executive Director, State Council on Developmental Disabilities Area Board V
- Cora Hoover, MD, family physician and student, University of California, Berkeley School of Public Health
- Mara McGrath, MPH, Policy Analyst, Lucile Packard Children's Hospital
- Suzanne Nelson, Director, North Region Special Education Local Plan Area, Alameda County
- Paul Newacheck, DrPH, Professor of Health Policy and Pediatrics at the Institute for Health Policy Studies and the Department of Pediatrics at University of California, San Francisco
- Sherri Sager, Chief Government Relations Officer, Lucile Packard Children's Hospital
- Paul Wise, MD, MPH, Richard E. Behrman Professor of Child Health and Society and Core Faculty Member, Center for Health Policy/Center for Primary Care and Outcomes Research, Stanford University.

For their thoughtful commentary and careful review of the report, the authors are grateful to:

- Lynn Kersey, MA, Executive Director, and the staff of Maternal and Child Health Access for serving as the inspiration for the program income graph found in Appendix 5.
- Marianne Ward, MA, University of Southern California University Center of Excellence in Developmental Disabilities at Children’s Hospital Los Angeles for her assistance with editing and formatting the report.
- Families and parent-to-parent staff members across California who contributed their stories to this report.
- Family Voices of California members who reviewed the report and provided valuable comments, including Reva Guimont, Family Resource Center Program Director, Exceptional Parents Unlimited; Wendy Longwell, Parent Liaison, Rowell Family Empowerment of Northern California; and, Diane Storman, Health Programs Manager, Exceptional Family Resource Center.