Family Engagement at the Systems Level: A Framework for Action

Family Voices Executive Director Nora Wells to Retire

The ‘Family Glitch Fix’ Gives Families New Options to Purchase Quality Affordable Health Care

FAMILIES WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES AND DECISION-MAKING: WHAT EVERY PARENT NEEDS TO KNOW.

Every Parent Needs to Know.

Seminario Web: Transición del Cuidado de Salud Pediátrico al de Adulto

'Mother of Disability Movement' Sparked a Revolution

In Brief: March 16, 2023

Exploring Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative and Hospice Care

Palliative and hospice care. The authors discuss what distinguishes this type of care, and how families, and their pediatric care teams. These articles, which must be written collaboratively, can highlight partnerships that occur in the care of individual children and/or in pediatric health systems level work. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

The ‘Family Glitch Fix’ Gives Families New Options to Purchase Quality Affordable Health Care

The ‘Family Glitch Fix’ gives families new options to purchase quality affordable health care. This new open-access article in the Journal of General Internal Medicine considers how and why perinatal transitions, communication and outreach strategies, and more.

Addressing Inequities in Regional Center Services

A new article in the Network Newsletter explores barriers that limit the ability of individuals with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities to advocate for their rights. The authors discuss strategies for family engagement in systems-level activities -- such as participation in advisory and other decision-making groups, or creation and revision of policies -- that have not been studied in detail.

The ‘Family Glitch Fix’ Gives Families New Options to Purchase Quality Affordable Health Care

The ‘Family Glitch Fix’ gives families new options to purchase quality affordable health care. This new open-access article in the Journal of General Internal Medicine considers how and why perinatal transitions, communication and outreach strategies, and more.

In Brief: March 16, 2023

Exploring Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative and Hospice Care

Palliative and hospice care. The authors discuss what distinguishes this type of care, and how families, and their pediatric care teams. These articles, which must be written collaboratively, can highlight partnerships that occur in the care of individual children and/or in pediatric health systems level work. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Calif. Federal Grant Seeks to Address Systemic Racism

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Disability Scoop, 3/13/23

Study Finds Psychiatry Training on Developmental Disabilities ‘Insufficient’

A new study finds that psychiatry training on developmental disabilities is insufficient, based on a review of the literature and interviews with experts.

Disability Scoop, 3/2/23

Nation’s Disability Services at Breaking Point, Report Finds

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

In Brief: March 16, 2023

Exploring Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative and Hospice Care

Palliative and hospice care. The authors discuss what distinguishes this type of care, and how families, and their pediatric care teams. These articles, which must be written collaboratively, can highlight partnerships that occur in the care of individual children and/or in pediatric health systems level work. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Calif. Federal Grant Seeks to Address Systemic Racism

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Disability Scoop, 3/13/23

Study Finds Psychiatry Training on Developmental Disabilities ‘Insufficient’

A new study finds that psychiatry training on developmental disabilities is insufficient, based on a review of the literature and interviews with experts.

Disability Scoop, 3/2/23

Nation’s Disability Services at Breaking Point, Report Finds

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

In Brief: March 16, 2023

Exploring Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative and Hospice Care

Palliative and hospice care. The authors discuss what distinguishes this type of care, and how families, and their pediatric care teams. These articles, which must be written collaboratively, can highlight partnerships that occur in the care of individual children and/or in pediatric health systems level work. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Calif. Federal Grant Seeks to Address Systemic Racism

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Disability Scoop, 3/13/23

Study Finds Psychiatry Training on Developmental Disabilities ‘Insufficient’

A new study finds that psychiatry training on developmental disabilities is insufficient, based on a review of the literature and interviews with experts.

Disability Scoop, 3/2/23

Nation’s Disability Services at Breaking Point, Report Finds

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

In Brief: March 16, 2023

Exploring Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative and Hospice Care

Palliative and hospice care. The authors discuss what distinguishes this type of care, and how families, and their pediatric care teams. These articles, which must be written collaboratively, can highlight partnerships that occur in the care of individual children and/or in pediatric health systems level work. Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis.

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Calif. Federal Grant Seeks to Address Systemic Racism

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.

INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Disability Scoop, 3/13/23

Study Finds Psychiatry Training on Developmental Disabilities ‘Insufficient’

A new study finds that psychiatry training on developmental disabilities is insufficient, based on a review of the literature and interviews with experts.

Disability Scoop, 3/2/23

Nation’s Disability Services at Breaking Point, Report Finds

California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

A report from Disability Rights California notes that ethnic and racial disparities persist in California’s regional center system. The authors propose four community-led strategies to address systemic racism.

Judy Heumann Led a Reimagining of What It Means to Be Disabled

Heumann, a former state director and a lifelong advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities, was a trailblazer in many realms, including passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Read more.