Improving Access to Care for Young Adults Transferring to Adult Care

When young adults with complex care needs turn 18, they face the possibility of losing coverage even if they are still eligible. For families of CYSHCN, any lapse in Medicaid coverage can be especially challenging as they cope with the requirement to renew their children's Medicaid coverage, and many children are at risk losing coverage even if they are still eligible. Wealth of Provisions

Two newly proposed rules from the Biden Administration contain a wealth of provisions that may have a major impact on the quality of their lives. The National Alliance to Advance Adolescent Health Workforce Equity established a national initiative in collaboration with The Camden Coalition's National Center for Complex Health and Social Needs to highlight concerns. The survey, which was conducted in collaboration with the National Alliance to Advance Adolescent Health Workforce Equity, highlighted concerns that may have a major impact on the quality of their lives.
