Grants Recently Awarded
June 4, 2015

Grantee: Association of Maternal and Child Health Programs
Primary Investigator: Treeby Brown, Associate Director of Child and Adolescent Health
Grant Title: National Consensus Framework for Improving Quality Systems of Care for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs, Phase III
Grant Amount: $210,000
Duration: 18 months
Summary: To refine, consolidate and streamline the national consensus standards for systems of care for CSHCN and to further disseminate and promote the adoption of the national standards to state health agencies and private sector health plans.
Website: http://www.amchp.org/pages/default.aspx

Grantee: The Regents of the University of California, Los Angeles
Primary Investigator: Dr. Paul Chung, Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Health Policy & Management
Grant Title: Defining Population Health for Children with Medical Complexity
Grant Amount: $165,362
Duration: 18 months
Summary: To identify short and long-term outcomes important to children with medical complexity and to achieve consensus among national stakeholders of measurable key population outcomes and measurement gaps.
Website: http://www.ucla.edu